Corporate Social Responsibility

CEMEFI (the Mexican Center for Philanthropy) and AliaRSE (Alliance for Corporate Social Responsibility in Mexico) recognized Walmart de México y Centroamérica with the Socially Responsible Company (ESR, per its acronym in Spanish) distinction, for the 16th consecutive year, after the company's actions in favor of the society and the environment, corporate governance and commitment for the generation of value and the improvement of the quality of life for Mexican families. This is the only company in the self-service industry that has been granted this distinction ever since it was instituted.

Walmart de México y Centroamérica informed that it will devote resources to programs that support women's development, wellbeing, health and advancement in El Salvador in 2016. During this initiative, the company, in alliance with Fundación Glasswing Internacional and Asociación Voces Vitales El Salvador, will provide for women to take workshops, be involved in mentorship programs and receive training.
